

Connecting the Rings.

We found it-
Isolated in North Cumbria,
Castlerigg stone circle
Majestic standing stones
On ancient hill top.

My daughter laughed as I walked round
For I was dressed in pink sparkly top
Pink sparkly flipflops, diaphanous scarf
Whilst fellow visitors
Sported heavy walking boots,
Anoraks, hats and gloves.

Smiling to myself
I wandered round
Drawn to one particular stone
Which I stood by
And lovingly caressed.

Suddenly in my mind's eye
I 'saw' rings of golden light
Spinning round the circle of stones
Grounding with a flash
Through the centre
Of the circle.
Connecting the energy
With the standing stones in Avebury.

Ah I thought
So that is why I am here-
To connect these ancient stone circles
Reactivating their sacred energy.

(I really don't need walking boots for that!)
